

THIS LIFE IS FULL OF WRONG

By: J. Randal Matheny

This life is full of wrong,
Its beauty deeply marred,
A cry behind the song,
And flies within the nard.

Beyond a human's reach,
Perfection lies ahead
Where blessed acts and speech
Are filling drink and bread.

We gladly leave behind
This evil pit of filth,
To fiercely seek and find
The trove of godly wealth.

Walk In Light

By: Larry Miles

In Ephesians 5:3-14 Paul describes the themes of light and darkness by contrasting the works of darkness and the fruit of the Spirit. In Ephesians 5:8, he writes, "For you were once darkness."

Paul does not say that Christians are walking in darkness. Rather he uses the term "once."

What did he mean by that terminology? Just as he reminded the church at Corinth that before they became Christians they were involved in many ungodly actions, he tells us here that we are "light in the world." We must live out our lives glorifying God and reflecting that we are children of light.

Notice the contrasts that Paul is trying to make:

Exalt God, not idols (Eph. 5:3-6)

Exhibit the Fruit of the Light (Eph. 5:7-10)

Expose the Darkness (Eph. 5:11-14)

*"See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be unwise, but understand what the will of the Lord is."
Ephesians 5:15-17*
